Super Series Race #1

Welcome racers to the 2010 CCRC Super Series season. We look forward to more action packed racing. A good number of people turned out for the first race of the series. We had twenty-three entries in all divided into three classes. There were seven in Limited Sportsman , an even dozen in sportsman and four in Super Trucks.

Jerry Evans was out of the race by lap 52 when involved in a wreck in which his car went airborne and almost cleared the catch fence. The rest of the race went as expected with Allen Johnson fighting for the lead early and taking the lead on lap12 and held it until Will Landers took the lead away from him on lap 30. Will held the lead until lap 41 when he too was out for the count and Allen Johnson picked up the lead again. Cliff Scales lead a quick 2 laps but it turned out to be Bob Williams in the end from lap76 to 150 for the win.
